

GO TO JOSEPH

When Scripture says, “Go to Joseph,” (Genesis 41:55) it invites us to learn from the quiet strength of the man God entrusted with His Son. St. Joseph’s life offers a powerful pattern of holiness lived through action, trust, and faithful leadership. In his name, we discover six virtues that shape strong families and holy lives.

J – The Just Man

Living with integrity, virtue, and holiness in every vocation and responsibility entrusted by God

O – The Obedient One

Trusting God’s will without hesitation and responding immediately with faithful action

S – The Silent Saint

Cultivating an interior life of prayer, discipline, and attentive listening to God

E – The Example

Leading by actions more than words and modeling faith within family and work

P – The Patron

Interceding as protector of the Church, families, workers, and a holy death

H – The Helper of Mary

Serving in self-sacrificing partnership and leading the family toward Heaven together
